Consider the Following Questions which we will discuss in the pre-Baptismal Meeting:

1. How did you choose this name for your child? Do they carry a special family name given in memory of someone else? What about the people they are named for do you hope your child might embody?
2. What hopes and wishes do you have for your child?
3. What is your understanding of what Baptism means? What meaning does it have for you?

(Please note, there is no expected or right answer to any of this, we just want to begin a discussion based on where you are at as a family - Baptism is a free gift we joyfully offer for all who seek it we acknowledge that for many it may be a combination of personal faith, family expectation, and many more aspects)
